

Change the verbs below into the past continuous form and use them to complete the sentences with the pictures best describing what happened. Read your sentences to your partner. Then change the pronouns below to the reflexive pronoun form.

eat	You were eating dinner.
study	I _____ math.
drive	She _____ to work.
fight	We _____ .

me	myself
you
her / him
it
us
you (plural)
they

Now ask a partner to give you any two verbs in the past continuous form and any two reflexive pronouns. Write them into the blanks in the story and let your partner read it. Then give your partner any two past continuous verbs and any two reflexive pronouns. Read their story and remember that reflexive pronouns can only be used in certain ways. Correct any mistakes in their use.

Answers for above
 You were eating dinner.
 I was studying math.
 She was driving to work.
 We were fighting.

The Worst Day Ever

Yesterday was the worst day of my life.

First, while I was cooking breakfast,
 (past continuous verb)

I burned myself ! Then, while I
 (reflexive pronoun)

_____ my car to school, a (past continuous verb)

self-driving car crashed _____
 (reflexive pronoun)

into me! I got to work okay. But then,

when my friends and I _____
 (past continuous verb)

_____ on our project, my friends
 (past continuous verb)

started fighting and got _____ (plural reflexive pronoun)

kicked out! What a horrible day!

Answers for above

me - myself; you - yourself; her - herself; him - himself; it - itself;
 us - ourselves; you (plural) - yourselves; them - themselves

Change the verbs below into the past continuous form and use them to complete the sentences with the pictures best describing what happened. Read your sentences to your partner. Then change the pronouns below to the reflexive pronoun form.

play	You were playing tennis.
ride	I _____ a horse.
talk	He _____ to me.
relax	We _____ .

me	myself
you
her / him
it
us
you (plural)
they

Now ask a partner to give you any two verbs in the past continuous form and any two reflexive pronouns. Write them into the blanks in the story and let your partner read it. Then give your partner any two past continuous verbs and any two reflexive pronouns. Read their story and remember that reflexive pronouns can only be used in certain ways. Correct any mistakes in their use.

Answers for above
 You were playing tennis.
 I was riding a horse.
 She was talking to me.
 We were relaxing.

The Best Day Ever

Yesterday was the best day of my life. First, while I was sleeping, my children
(past continuous verb)
 made themselves breakfast so I did not (reflexive pronoun)
 have to wake up early! Next, while I _____ (past continuous verb) the bus to work, my boss called and said all my co-workers and I could have the day to _____.
(reflexive pronoun) Then while my family _____
(past continuous verb) in the garden, the ice cream truck came and we bought _____ (reflexive pronoun) ice cream! It was a great day!

Answers for above
 me - myself; you - yourself; her - herself; him - himself; it - itself;
 us - ourselves; you (plural) - yourselves; them - themselves