Kalabushe And The Hyena

African Storybook
Jesse Breytenbach

English

There lived a girl
called Kalabushe.
She talked a lot.

One day, Kalabushe's aunt
fell ill.

That evening, Kalabushe took food to her sick aunt.

Kalabushe met a hyena who had changed into a person.

Kalabushe told him, "I am carrying meat, eggs and milk."

The hyena licked his lips as he thought about meat.

The hyena ran ahead of Kalabushe to her aunt's house.

He swallowed Kalabushe's aunt.
He covered himself
with her blanket.

Kalabushe arrived and called out, "Aunt, where are you?"

Kalabushe saw someone covered with a big blanket.

Kalabushe asked, “Aunt, why are your ears so big today?”

“Aunt, why are your eyes so big?”

“Aunt, why is your mouth big?”

The hyena swallowed her!

Kalabushe kept asking questions while inside the hyena's stomach.

He became tired of Kalabushe's questions. He spat her out.

Kalabushe and her aunt were rescued by the villagers.
