

Advanced English Course

Welcome to Advanced English! Please bring a notebook and a pen every day. In this course, we will focus on the following themes:

- Writing letters
- Stating your opinion/agreement/disagreement
- The Environment
- Culture, holidays and traditions
- The future
- Travel
- Health and Wellness
- Literature/poetry/creative writing

These topics may change depending on the preferences of the class and the speed of the course.

Pen Pal Project

At the beginning of the course, you will be matched with an American pen pal. You will write a letter to them 1-2 times per month! The goal of this project is to exchange American and Comorian culture and practice writing and communicating in English. Writing letters to you pen pal will be necessary to complete this course. Your teacher will tell you when your pen pal letter is due and will collect it in class. She will also give you the letter your pen pal sends.

Assessment

There will be one oral assessment and one sketch performance at the end of the course. The course will end in May.
