

TOPIC: Indirect Articles

Week: Articles Week 1

Class: 2C

Hour 1 goals:

Materials:

Objectives:

-

Hour
Warm Up/Engage
	Review indirect objects using new vocabulary
	Fill in table with students, use in lesson later on
	<table border="1"><thead><tr><th>Indirect Articles</th><th>Direct Article</th></tr></thead><tbody><tr><td>a/an</td><td>The</td></tr><tr><td>General</td><td>Specific</td></tr><tr><td>Singular</td><td>Singular Plural</td></tr><tr><td>Count</td><td>Count noncount</td></tr></tbody></table>	Indirect Articles	Direct Article	a/an	The	General	Specific	Singular	Singular Plural	Count	Count noncount
Indirect Articles	Direct Article
a/an	The
General	Specific
Singular	Singular Plural
Count	Count noncount
Information
	Vocabulary: Meat: chicken, fish, beef Eggs, beans Rice, bread, pasta
	Grammar: definite article "the" Used with a specific object that both person speaking and listener know Ex. The copybook is new The teacher is very nice Where is the eraser? Where is the chalk? The eraser is on the desk. The chalk is on the floor. The first time you speak of something use "a or an" and the next time you repeat that object use "the" I live in a house. The house is old. I have an orange. The orange is sweet. Use a definite article when there is only one such thing "The sun" "The earth" Before the names of famous buildings, famous books, etc "The Quran" "The Ministry Building"
Practice

	Have students fill in blanks: a/an/the: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. The sun is very bright. 2. I am going to the airport. 3. Do you want an apple? 4. I need a pencil. 5. The English teacher is Alana. 6. I have a sister. 7. My sister is going to the market. 8. She bought a cucumber and some tomatoes at the market.
Application
Conclusion/Wrap-up
Extension

Hour 2
Warm Up/Engage
Information
	Do not use an article before the name of a person: I like Michael Jackson. I listen to Britney Spears' music. When speaking about things in general do not use any article: I like tea I like books You don't need to use an article when you talk about meals, places and transport I am going to France I traveled by airplane What do you eat for dinner? I live in Anjouan
Practice
	1: Hi 2! How are you? 2 I'm good, thanks. What do you need? 1: I need some tomatoes and a cucumber. 2: Here are some tomatoes. 1: Are the tomatoes ripe? 2: Yes! The tomatoes are ripe. 1: I also need a cucumber. Do you have cucumbers? 2: Today I don't have any cucumbers. I do have a pineapple! 1: How much does the pineapple cost? 2: The pineapple is cheap! 1: I'll take it!
Application

Conclusion/Wrap-up
Extension	