

Day 1 Lesson Plan

Good morning! My name is Alana, I will be your teacher.

Today is Saturday, the 19th of September, two thousand fifteen.

Today, we will go over classroom rules, learn classroom words, and introduce ourselves.

My name is Miss Alana. What is your name? Nice to meet you. (Go around room, ask everyone their names, write down to take attendance.)

Nice to meet all of you. I am sorry, I may forget your name. If I forget, I will ask you again.

Now we are going to go over classroom rules.

Classroom Rules: (write on board)

1. Arrive on time – Make sure you are not late to class. Class starts at _____. Come to class at ____.
2. No cell phones – Turn off your telephone for class. If you use your telephone, I will take it and put it in the front of the room.
3. Raise your hand – If you want to speak, raise your hand and I will call on you.
4. Speak in English – Only speak in English in class! No Shizwani or French.

Here are important words you need to know for class. (For each word, ask students to demonstrate meaning. If no students know, demonstrate and have students mimic.)

Classroom vocabulary:

- Read
- Write
- Stand up
- Sit down
- Raise your hand
- Speak slower, please
- Speak louder, please
- Repeat, please
- Do you understand?
- I do/don't understand
- Thank you
