

Present Simple or Present Progressive

1. Ibrahim: Hi, Ahmed. What _____ (you/to do) today?
2. Ahmed: At the moment, I _____ (to change) my shoes. Where _____ (you/to go)?
3. Ibrahim: I _____ (to go) to my cousin's house to play football.
4. Ahmed: Oh. Do you always _____ (to exercise) by playing football?
5. Ibrahim: No. Tomorrow, I _____ (to go) to exercise by running from Itsandra to Iconi with my cousin.
6. Ahmed: He _____ (to have) short, straight black hair, right?
7. Ibrahim: Yes. He _____ (to be) tall and generous. Did you see him today?
8. Ahmed: Yes. I usually _____ (to see) him in the mornings when he is on his way to work.
9. Ibrahim: Oh. When he goes to work, he always _____ (to wear) dress pants, a dress shirt, and a tie.
10. Ahmed: Yes, but today he _____ (to wear) jeans, a shirt, and sandals.

Past Simple and Past Progressive

11. Yesterday, I _____ (to go) to the market with my sister to buy new clothes.
12. My sister bought a brown blouse, while I _____ (to try on) a black dress.
13. I was _____ (to take off) the dress when I saw an overweight man with a white beard. He was my cousin from France.
14. He blinked at me, and then he _____ (to run) to me and politely greeted me.
15. We _____ (to talk) and then left to return home.
16. On the drive home, we _____ (to listen) to the radio when we heard a new song from Rihanna.
17. I _____ (to drive) while my sister _____ (to sing) and my cousin was dancing.
18. I love Rihanna. Last year, I _____ (to go) to hear her sing in New York.
19. Rihanna _____ (to wear) a pretty red dress with black sandals and a necklace while she sang.
20. I think Rihanna _____ (to see) me and winked at me.