WHAT IS AN ENGLISH CLUB?

An English Club is ...

- A group of people—Club Members—who meet regularly to practice speaking, listening, reading, and writing in English;
- A series of regularly scheduled meetings where Club Members practice English and help the community solve problems.

Why start an English Club?

- English is a global language;
- Knowledge of English can help people in their jobs and with international business;
- Club Members can have fun, interesting, thoughtful, and provocative conversations in English;
- English Clubs can solve problems in the community—while practicing English.

Who can join the English Club?

- Everyone who wants to practice English;
- Old and young, rich and poor, doctors, teachers, and taxi drivers—all who want to practice English;
- Professionals, workers, grandchildren, and grandparents—all who want to practice English.

Where can the English Club meet?

- A convenient place for Club Members;
- A public place like a school, library, church, park, or a member's house;
- A place with easy access to public transportation.

When can the English Club meet?

- A convenient time for Club Members;
- Once a week, twice a month, or once a month—a convenient time for Club Members;
- In the evening for professionals, Saturday afternoons for secondary students, or Saturday nights for university students—a convenient time for Club Members;
- Before or after a religious service;
- A time that is agreed to by the Club Members and Club Leader.

For how long can the English Club meet?

- The meetings can last for one hour ... two hours—Club Members can decide;
- Clubs can meet for one year ... many years—Club Members can decide.

What happens during English Club meetings?

- At the first meeting, Club Leaders establish meeting time, date, and place;
- Club Leaders use The English Club Handbook: A Guide for English Club Leaders to plan and organize meetings;
- Club Members use The English Club Handbook: A Manual for English Club Members;
- Club Leaders consult with Club Members to plan meetings;
- Club Meetings are conducted in English and Club Members participate in conversations, skits, interviews, debates, and plan activities that will help improve the community.

A note about atmosphere

- Remember: The goal of English Clubs is to practice English;
- Club Meetings are NOT a time to teach English;
- Club Meetings are NOT an English class with a teacher and students;
- Club Meetings have a Club Leader and Club Members;
- Club Meetings are fun, interesting, supportive times when everyone practices English;
- Club Leaders are NOT teachers—they are coaches and guides for the Club Members;
- Club Meetings give Club Members opportunities to experiment and play with English;
- Club Leaders and Club Members must be supportive, encouraging, and respectful;
- Club Leaders and Members must be kind, caring and thoughtful;
- Club Meetings must be safe places where people talk about topics or ideas without fear;
- Club Meetings have like-minded people who want to practice English and help their community;
- The Club will be effective if Club Leaders and Club Members are sure that the Club is for “them.” The meetings are for “them.”

Good luck!

Practice English!

Help the community!

Have fun!

Talking about Sensitive Topics: Trauma and Mental Health

All over the world there are violent conflicts—inside countries and between them. In homes all over the world families experience domestic violence. Violence can be on-going or happen and end quickly. Violence can hide—under the surface—for a long time.

Adults and children who survive violence may have physical wounds—on the face, arms or legs. Some physical wounds we can't see—on the stomach, back, or thighs. Some wounds we can only feel—in our hearts and minds. These are psychological wounds.

Violent experiences cause psychological wounds—trauma (and other mental health problems). Most adults and children who survive violence have trauma—this is very common.

Sometimes, trauma is visible. Adults and children may shout and act violently or aggressively. They may wander around town. They may have dirty clothes and body. They may eat or sleep a little. They may cry, have headaches, stomachaches, feel short of breath, feel nauseous, or weak—and—there won't be a medical illness.* They may not want to talk, laugh, or play. They may have nightmares (shouting when asleep). They may worry most of the time, feel nervous, never feel at peace, always expect bad things to happen, be afraid of getting sick or dying.*

Adults may drink alcohol and beat family members—for example, their children. Many times these events happen in secret and the family is afraid to speak. In school, children may not concentrate. They may not smile or play. They may fight a lot with other children. These reactions are normal—and—not all children will react in the same way.*

People with trauma may not understand that they have trauma—and friends and family may not understand either. Medical people—doctors and nurses—and community leaders—mayors, police, and church officials—should help people with trauma get medical help.

It is common for people with trauma to experience trauma again when something makes them remember the violence. This is called re-traumatization.

Some Club Meeting Activities may be difficult to discuss. The topic may touch a violent memory. When this happens Club Members may become quiet, angry, sad, or unstable.

The Club Leader and Members must be very sensitive to the possibility of re-traumatization. The Club Leader should find a doctor or nurse to help Members with trauma. Or, it may be necessary to stop a Club Meeting or to give Members time to share their story. Maybe a Member will need to leave the Club or speak quietly with a friend outside the Meeting.

The Club Leader and Members must remember that Club Meetings should be a safe place for everyone to find sympathy and encouragement—to practice English and share opinions, thoughts, and stories.

Now, you are ready to begin! Have a good time!

Rules for Active Listening

Native Americans lived in the U.S. before the Europeans came. Here is one of their proverbs:

BEFORE WE CAN UNDERSTAND ANOTHER OTHER PEOPLE, WE MUST WALK A MILE IN THEIR SHOES. BEFORE WE CAN WALK IN OTHER PEOPLE'S SHOES, WE MUST FIRST TAKE OFF OUR OWN.

When we listen actively, we ...

- LISTEN TO THE WORDS AND FEELINGS OF THE CLUB MEMBER;
- SEE THE WORLD AND FEEL THE WORLD THROUGH THE MEMBER'S EYES—EMPATHIZE WITH THIS PERSON;
- TRY TO UNDERSTAND THE CLUB MEMBER'S FEELINGS.

RULES FOR ACTIVE LISTENING

DO NOT THINK ABOUT OUR OPINION—ONLY LISTEN

TRY TO UNDERSTAND THE MEMBER AS IF WE ARE WALKING IN THEIR SHOES

LISTEN WITH:

OUR EARS

OUR EYES

OUR FEELINGS

WATCH FOR NON-VERBAL SIGNS WHEN THE MEMBER TALKS

LET THE MEMBER TALK AND ASK HER TO EXPLAIN FURTHER

ASK THE CLUB MEMBER QUESTIONS TO HELP HER BE MORE CLEAR

COULD YOU EXPLAIN FURTHER?

CAN YOU TELL ME MORE ABOUT _____?

SUMMARIZE THE MEMBER'S IDEA

LET ME CHECK THAT THIS IS WHAT YOU SAID ... YOU SAID ...

GIVE YOUR OPINION WITHOUT CRITICIZING

Active Listening

A Skit

- Anne: ... this is why I'm in favor of a dowry.
- Martin: O.K. You say you favor the dowry because it gives respect to the woman. Am I right?
- Anne: Yes, you're right.
- Martin: Now, I disagree with you. Don't you know that families increase the dowry price to get money from the man and ...
- Anne: But that's stupid. Why would ...
- Club Leader: Stop, Anne. Stop. First of all, Martin didn't finish his point. Second, you didn't summarize his idea before giving yours.
- Anne: I apologize.
- Martin: So, I wanted to say that the family will sell their daughter to the man with the most money. Should women be sold?
- Anne: O.K. That's not going to happen because ...
- Club Leader: Stop. What did Martin say?
- Anne: You're right. Martin thinks the family will sell their daughter like we sell fruit in the market. But I disagree ...
- Club Leader: Just a second. Martin, do you think Anne sees your point?
- Martin: No.
- Club Leader: Anne, would you please try again? Or should Martin repeat his idea?

Active Listening Practice

Talk with the member sitting next to you. One of you is Club Member #1 and one of you is Club Member #2. Tell each other what you think is best to do after the Club Meeting. Follow these steps:

1. Member #1 speaks first. While Member #1 speaks, Member #2 must practice active listening;
2. When Member #1 is finished speaking, Club Member #2 must restate what she heard Member #1 say.
3. Then, Member #2 must check with Member #1 that she is correct.
4. When Members #1 and #2 are finished then do the reverse. Member #2 tells Member #1 what she thinks is best to do after the Meeting and Member #1 practices Active Listening.

Rules for Brainstorming

- EVERYONE HAS IDEAS
- ALL IDEAS ARE GOOD
- DON'T CRITICIZE ANY IDEAS
- DON'T DEBATE ANY IDEAS
- NO IDEA IS CRAZY OR BAD
- USE ONE IDEA TO CREATE A NEW IDEA
- GIVE LOTS OF IDEAS
- BE CREATIVE, FUNNY, CRAZY!

Brain Games Practice Brainstorming

Be creative! Use your imagination. These are not true stories. They are brain games! Take time to answer the first question. Create a long list. Then answer the second question—this one is harder. We have to be very creative!

1. What can we do with plastic bottles?
2. Last week there was a plane crash in our community and inside the plane we found 1,000,000 footballs. What can we do with these balls?

Questions after Brainstorming

1. How did you feel when we brainstormed?
2. Do you think Brainstorming can be a useful technique?
3. How might it be useful—and how not?

ENGLISH CLUB ACTIVITIES

Practice English!

Choose interesting activities!

Follow activities in sequence—or not!

Activities are suggestions—not rules!

Be creative!

Help the community!

Have fun!

Love & Health: A Skit

- Narrator: Susan and Patrick love each other very much. They are engaged to be married. Today Susan is visiting Patrick. He is very sick with malaria.
- Patrick: Susan, my dear, I am so sorry to tell you that I have malaria and I need some medicine. I don't know if it is possible for you to get me pills at the hospital.
- Susan: Of course I will go to the hospital and get some for you.
- Narrator: Susan leaves early the next morning for the hospital. When she arrives there is a long line. She waits all day for the pharmacist to serve her. It is dusk when she begins to walk home. Suddenly, a group of bandits blocks her path.
- Bandit #1: Stop. Give us everything you have or we will kill you.
- Susan: No, I won't. I have medicine for my fiancé. If I don't give this to him, he will become very sick.
- Bandit #2: Really? O.K. Here's what we'll do. If you have sex with us, we will let you return to your fiancé with the medicine. If you don't then we will kill you.
- Narrator: Susan cries and begs but the bandits do not change their minds. Finally Susan agrees to have sex with each of them. When Bandit #1 is finished, he tells her to go to Bandit #2. Susan goes to Bandit #2.
- Bandit #2: Go! I don't want to have sex with you. Run to your fiancé and don't stop for anyone.
- Narrator: Susan runs away quickly. When she reaches Patrick she is sweating a lot and she is out of breath. She is very, very upset. When Patrick asks what happened, she tells him about the bandits.
- Patrick: How could you have sex with bandits? You ruined our plans for a beautiful life. Leave. I never want to see you again.
- Narrator: Susan begs Patrick to understand the dilemma she faced but Patrick does not listen to her. Finally, she leaves his house but before she goes, she gives Patrick the medicine. After she goes, Patrick takes the pills. Meanwhile, Susan walks slowly to her home. On the way, she meets her father's friend, Paul, and she tells him the story.

Paul: This is terrible Susan. I can't believe that Patrick is so cruel. Didn't he understand you did this for him? I am going to punish him.

Narrator: Paul finds Patrick and beats him badly. Then Paul goes back to Susan and tells her what he did. Susan looks at Paul and smiles.

Love & Health: Stop the Skit!

Narrator: Susan and Patrick love each other very much. They are engaged to be married. Today Susan is visiting Patrick. He is very sick with malaria.

Patrick: Susan, my dear, I am so sorry to tell you that I have malaria and I need some medicine. I don't know if it is possible for you to get me pills at the hospital?

Susan: Of course I will go to the hospital and get some for you.

Narrator: Susan leaves early the next morning for the hospital. When she arrives there is a long line. She has to wait all day for the pharmacist to serve her. It is dusk when she begins to walk home. Suddenly, a group of bandits blocks her path.

Conversation Questions: Choose a Few to Talk About

1. At this moment in the story, Patrick and Susan have many problems ... What are their problems? Make a list of them.
2. Look at this list. Do you see problems that are similar to your problems? What are they? List them.
3. Are there actions you and the English Club can take to solve any one of these problems?
4. What are these actions? Brainstorm ideas ... Remember that brainstorming is sharing all ideas, crazy or stupid or imaginary ... put all the ideas on the list. Be creative! Be clever!
5. When you finish brainstorming, look at your ideas. Is there one idea that the English Club can do?
6. Share this idea when the Club Leader tells you to.

Love & Health: Patrick's Story

One year after their fight, Susan and Patrick were friends again. After a short time, they married and they had 3 children. Then, Patrick became unhappy. He lost his job because he had a fight with his boss. So Susan had to go to work. Patrick became very sad and depressed. He didn't want to eat. He didn't want to wash himself. His clothes were always dirty. He often drank beer. Sometimes he had fights with his neighbors.

One day Susan came home and Patrick demanded money for beer. Susan said, "No, we must buy mosquito nets for our children. We must protect them from malaria."

Patrick said, "Listen, you are my wife and you must do what I tell you to do. Give me the money." Susan refused. Patrick beat her. The children watched and cried in silence.

Conversation Questions for Women/Girls

1. Should Susan give Patrick the money? Why, or why not?
2. Susan earns the money for the family. Who should decide how to spend the money? Patrick or Susan?
3. Are the children in this family safe? Why—or why not?
4. If you were Susan's friend, what would you say if Susan told you this story?
5. If you were Susan's friend and her neighbor told you this story, would you speak to Susan about it?
6. Would you interfere? If yes, why—and how? If no, why not?
7. What should Susan do next?
8. If we know families like Patrick and Susan in our community is there something we can do to help the parents and the children?

Conversation Questions for Men/Boys

1. Is it O.K. for Patrick to drink as much as he wants? Why or why not?
2. What are Patrick's problems?
3. How can Patrick solve his problems?
4. Are the children in this family safe? Why—or why not?
5. If you were Patrick's friend, what would you say if Patrick told you this story?
6. If you were Patrick's friend and his neighbor told you this story, would you speak to Patrick about it?

Malala & Children's Rights: A Skit

- Narrator: When Malala Yousafzai* was a young girl, she lived in Pakistan with her family. Her father was a teacher and school director. Malala went to her father's school.
- After some time, Taliban militants started taking action. They killed and be-headed policemen. They showed the heads to the villagers. The villagers were afraid. One Taliban militant, Fazlullah, spoke on the radio. This is what he said.
- Taliban Stop watching television. Television is bad. Stop listening to music. Music is bad. Bring all televisions to me. I will destroy them. Girls must stop going to school. School is bad for girls.
- Narrator It was 2008. Malala was 11 years old. Her father did not close the school but some of Malala's friends stopped going to school. Malala's father spoke in public about the problems. Malala wrote on the internet for the BBC News. She wrote anonymously so no one knew a young girl was writing. This is what Malala wrote.
- Malala Before, we were 27 girls in my class. Now we are only 11 girls. This number decreased because the Taliban banned all girls from going to school.
- Narrator The problems continued. The Taliban militants destroyed more than 100 girls' schools. Malala spoke against the Taliban on national television. Malala's father spoke about the problems with girls' education. In 2011, Malala was 14 years old. She received many international awards. Here is what one speaker said.
- Speaker We give this award to Malala. She is courageous. She dared to stand up for girls. She told the world that girls have the right to go to school.
- Narrator By 2012 Malala was very famous but she received death threats in newspapers and at home. Malala's mother and father were afraid.
- Mother I don't like these awards. I am scared. Malala is a target for the Taliban. I don't like to go in public. I don't like anyone to take my photograph. I don't want Malala to speak in public. I don't want awards. I want my daughter.
- Father I am not happy. In Pakistan we don't honor people when they are alive. We give honor when they are dead. This is a bad sign. I only want to educate my children and my nation. But when we have problems, we must speak out.
- Narrator Malala continued to go to school. She continued to win awards. In 2012 Malala was 15 years old. One day, she was going home. She was on the school bus with her friends.

Friend #1      Look at that man. He is cutting off the head of that chicken.

Friend #2      Yes, I see him. I think he will have a good dinner tonight.

Malala          Do you remember what we said when we were young?

Friend # 2      I don't remember.

Malala          We said that our people love peace so much it is hard to find a man to kill a chicken. Do you remember?

Friend #1      Yes, I remember.

Malala          Look now, soon winter will be here and we will have snow.

Narrator        The bus turns the corner. Malala sees a sign, "Wanted Terrorists." The photograph is the man from the radio, Fazlullah. He is still free after 3 years. The bus goes up the hill.

Friend #1      It is very quiet. Where are all the people?

Malala          I don't know. But right now I am very proud. My mother is going to school. This is her first day. Today she will begin to learn to read and write. I am very happy that she is going to school.

Narrator        Two men stop the bus. They go into the bus.

Men (1 & 2)    Who is Malala?

Narrator        There are three shots. Malala is hit in the head. The bus driver goes to the hospital. The nurses and doctors work to save her. After a few days, the government flies her to a hospital in Britain. Malala recovers after many months. In 2014 Malala receives the Nobel Peace Prize. She fights against the suppression of children and she fights for the right of all children to be educated.

Malala & Children's Rights: Interview with Malala

- Interviewer Welcome to our broadcast, Malala.* We are happy you are here today.
- Malala Thank you. I am very happy to be here too.
- Interviewer Let me begin by congratulating you on the Nobel Peace Prize. You are co-recipient of this Peace Prize. You are the youngest person and the first Pakistani to receive it.
- Malala Thank you.
- Interviewer I want to ask first how you are after recovering from the assassination attempt.
- Malala I am O.K. I had very good care in Pakistan and I want to thank all the people in the U.K. who helped with my recovery.
- Interviewer Malala, you are a young and beautiful girl. There are many men who would be happy to marry you and give you a comfortable home. Education is not everything in life, is it?
- Malala All I want is an education. In some places, students go to school every day. It's their normal life. But in other parts of the world, we are starving for education. It is like a precious gift. It's like a diamond. I need to speak out so we can be sure to have education for everyone. I do not want a comfortable home. I want education for everyone.
- Interviewer Yes, we know that education is one of the Rights of the Child. But your life was in danger. Weren't you afraid?
- Malala I think life is always dangerous. Some people are afraid of it. Some people don't go forward. But some people, if they want to achieve their goal, they have to go. They have to move... We have seen the barbaric situation of the 21st century in Swat in Pakistan. So why should I be afraid now?
- Interviewer But there are people who want to kill you.
- Malala The terrorists thought they would change my aims and stop my ambitions, but nothing changed in my life except this: weakness, fear and hopelessness died. Strength, power and courage were born.
- Interviewer You are very courageous. Why do you speak like this?

Malala For a long time the world was silent. No one was speaking about this problem. In My valley in Pakistan, people were afraid to speak. When the world is silent, even one voice becomes powerful. I needed to speak. I will continue to speak.

Interviewer But speaking is dangerous.

Malala I am afraid of no one. I am a good girl and I only have the desire to help people.

Interviewer So will you continue to speak even if it is dangerous?

Malala Yes, I was spared for a reason—to use my life for helping people.

Interviewer Don't you hate the man who shot you? If you saw him today what would you do?

Malala I do not even hate the Talib who shot me. Even if there was a gun in my hand and he stood in front of me today, I would not shoot him.

Interviewer It is time for us to go. Do you have anything else you want to say?

Malala Let us remember: One book, one pen, one child, and one teacher can change the world.

Interviewer I want to thank Malala Yousafzai for her visit today. She is co-recipient of the 2014 Nobel Peace Prize. She received this for her fight against the suppression of children and for the right of all children to education. We appreciate her speaking with us today.

Speaking Out! Keeping Silent! A Skit

Narrator	One day Maria walks near the football field and sees some of her brother's friends playing football. Maria goes to see them.
Maria	Can I play with you?
Pascal	No! Girls don't play football! Go home and prepare dinner for your brothers.
Maria	My brothers are in the village. Can I play with you?
Pascal	My friends don't like girls to play with us.
Samson	That's right.
Christophe	Yes, I agree. No girls.
Pascal	Go! Go home and wash the clothes. [Action: Maria begins to leave.]
Tomas	Stop Maria. I think we should give you a chance. I don't have a problem to let a girl play. [Action: Maria stops and looks at Tomas.]

- Samson        Maybe you're right Tomas. This is just a game.
- Pascal        You play with her and I won't play. You are wrong to play with a girl. I'm leaving.
[Action: Pascal leaves.]
- Tomas        When you play football, what position do you like to play Maria?

Conversation Starter

To prepare for the conversation, write each role on a piece of paper. Then, write a short story about an experience YOU had in each role. Write a story about when you were a bully, a target, a bystander, and an ally. Be ready to share one of your stories.

Conversation Questions: Choose a Few to Talk About

1. Which role(s) was it difficult to think about or share an experience? Why?
2. Why is it important to understand the roles we play?
3. If we want to reduce prejudice, discrimination, and bullying what can we do?
How can we do this?

Think about ...

- How can we change our actions?
- How can we become allies?

Bully? Bystander? Ally? Changing our Actions

Conversation Questions: Choose a Few to Talk About

1. What characteristics do allies have?
2. Do you have one characteristic that makes you a good ally?
3. Do you have one characteristic you can make better?
4. Tell the person next to you one characteristic you do well and one you want to work on.

Role Plays

Talk about experiences when you saw bullies and bystanders. Create a role play and present this to the Club Members.

Conversation Questions: Choose a Few to Talk About

1. How can we become allies?
2. Is it difficult to be an ally? If yes, why? What makes it difficult?
3. Are there risks when we are allies? What are they? How can we protect ourselves?
[Remember it is important to consider the risks and respect cultural differences when we decide to stop an act of prejudice, discrimination, or bullying. We want to be safe.]
4. Are there good things that can happen when we are allies?
5. What can we do so that we are better allies for people?

Speaking Out! Stop the Skit

- Narrator Claudine is a secretary in a company. She comes to work every day and she works very hard. She has worked in this company for 10 years.
- P Claudine! Claudine! Where are you? I need my coffee right now.
- Claudine [Action: Claudine goes to P] Yes, I am coming with your coffee in one minute.
- VP Claudine! Claudine! Come quickly. My pen is broken.
- Claudine [Action: Claudine goes to VP] Here I am.
- VP Get me a new pen.
- Claudine Yes, in one minute. [Action: Claudine looks for a pen.]
- P Claudine! Claudine! Where is my coffee? I want it immediately.
- Claudine [Action: Claudine runs to P] Yes, it is coming.
- P You must be quick. I am very thirsty.
- Claudine Yes, I will return quickly. [Action: Claudine runs to make the coffee.]
- A Claudine, where are you? I need help. My telephone doesn't work.
- Claudine [Action: Claudine runs to A with coffee in her hand] I will return to repair your telephone.
- A Oh, what is that?
- Claudine It is coffee for the President.
- A Give it to me. Get him another cup. Hurry up! Come back immediately and help me with my telephone.

P Claudine! Claudine! Where are you? I need my coffee right now.

Claudine [Action: Claudine goes to P and the “new” Claudine answers him.]

VP Claudine! Claudine! Come quickly. My pen is broken.

Claudine [Action: Claudine runs to P and speaks to him]

P [Action: Listen to Claudine and give her a new answer].

Narrator Now it is time for lunch. Claudine is very tired. Jean-Pierre (J-P) sits with Claudine at her table and eats his lunch. He is also a secretary.

J-P How are you Claudine? You look tired.

Claudine Yes, I have been running all morning. You don’t look tired. You look happy.

J-P Yes, I asked for a raise and got it! Next week, the President will give me more money.

Claudine A raise? You have been here for 5 years and I have been here for 10 years and you have a raise and I don’t have one. This is terrible.

J-P Did you ask for one?

Claudine No, never.

J-P If you don’t ask, do you think they will give you one because you work hard? No!

Narrator Lunchtime is finished. Claudine thinks about her conversation with Jean-Pierre. She wants a raise.

A Claudine, you’re late. You are always late and slow. I need help. I need paper.

Claudine [Action: Claudine runs to A] I will return with paper for you.

A Hurry up!

P Claudine, where are you? [Claudine goes to the President] I want my afternoon tea. You never remember. I must tell you every day.

Claudine I will bring it now. But first, I want to ask you a question.

P Hurry up. I'm very busy.

8. How can they help her?
9. How can this skit end?

Useful Expression

To ask for a raise

To ask for more money, a bigger salary

What is Democracy? Quotations about Democracy

Democracy is a form of government. All citizens can participate equally – either directly or, through elected representatives, indirectly – in the creation of laws and other regulations that the society uses.

Quotes about Democracy

- 1. To safeguard democracy, people must have a keen sense of independence and self-respect.
Mahatma Gandhi
- 2. My notion of democracy is that under it the weakest shall have the same opportunity as the strongest. This can never happen except through non-violence.
Mahatma Gandhi
- 3. In a true democracy, every man and woman is taught to think for himself or herself.
Mahatma Gandhi
- 4. Democracy is when people keep government in check.
Aung San Suu Kyi
- 5. It is the people who control the Government, not the Government the people.
Winston S. Churchill
- 6. Democracy begins with freedom from hunger, freedom from unemployment, freedom from fear, and freedom from hatred.
Vandana Shiva
- 7. My people are going to learn the principles of democracy, truth, and science. Superstition must go. Let them worship as they will, every man can follow his own conscience as long as it does not interfere with reason or the liberty of others.
Mustafa Kemal Atatürk
- 8. You see dictators on pedestals, surrounded by soldiers and police ... yet they have fear in their hearts. They are afraid of words and thoughts.
Winston S. Churchill
- 9. Secrecy begets tyranny.
Robert Heinlein
- 10. Protest beyond the law is not a departure from democracy; it is absolutely essential to it.
Howard Zinn
- 11. Democracy is not freedom. Democracy is two wolves and a lamb voting on what to eat for lunch. Freedom comes from knowing that certain rights may not be taken away, not even by a 99% vote.
Marvin Simkin
- 12. I believe in the people. Give them the truth and they will meet any national crisis. The important point is to bring them the real facts.
Abraham Lincoln
- 13. Democracy is necessary to peace and to undermining the forces of terrorism.
Benazir Bhutto

What is Democracy? Two Stories

Read the stories below and think about this question: Are these stories about democracy?

Story #1: Protests in Hong Kong*

In Hong Kong, student protests began at the end of September 2014. Students and many intellectuals were angry with the way the Chinese government wants to choose candidates in the 2017 election. Tens of thousands of students protested in the streets in September and October.

By mid-November, a few hundred protesters remained. Three students tried to get on an airplane and go to Beijing, the Chinese capital city. They wanted to speak with the Chinese government. The Chinese government stopped them at the airport. The government called the students "naïve" and told the Chinese people that the protesters failed. The students promised to continue their protest until their demands were met.

Story #2: Stealing Democracy or Buying it?

Before 2008*, New York City had a law that said the Mayor of New York City can be mayor for only 2 terms—8 years. Voters in New York City voted in support of this law two times.

In October 2008, the New York City Mayor* asked the City Council to change this law. He wanted to change from 2 terms to 3 terms—12 years. The City Council members voted in support of this change in the law. In 2009 this mayor was elected to a third term.

This mayor earns more than $30,000,000,000 from his private businesses**. When he was mayor, he spent $268,000,000 of his money on his re-election campaigns. He spent $1,000,000 to give free breakfast and lunch to his staff. He donated $30,000,000 to a museum. He gave $30,000,000 to help young men. He gave $7,000,000 to promote gun control. As mayor his salary was $2,700,000 but he did not accept this. He chose to take $1 per year.

What is Democracy? Free Speech

As you read this story, think about this question: Is this story about democracy?

Free Speech?

Last week, many people were arrested at a peaceful protest. They were protesting the government decision to change the Constitution. The government said that these people were terrorists.

Earlier today, one of the political opposition leaders was released from jail. He was in jail since 2006. He was arrested because he said, "We must save our country. Our country is in danger, there are enemies surrounding us. We must join together and fight for our country."

Is this free speech or terrorism? If yes, why? If no, why not?

Conversation Questions: Choose a Few to Talk About

1. Was the government correct to imprison this person for 8 years? If yes, why? If no, why not?
2. Was this a democratic decision?
3. What impact can this story have on the people in this country?
4. If this happened in our country, would we protest? Explain
5. How can we let our government know we do not agree with something it does?

Accident! Giving First Aid

Imagine we are riding on a bus. Suddenly a truck comes and hits the bus. We are in an accident. Passengers are hurt. Here are the injuries:

- 1. Male Passenger. He has a lot of blood coming from his head.
- 2. Female Passenger. She has trouble breathing. She tries but she can't breathe. She has peanuts in her hand.
- 3. Child Passenger. This child is screaming. Her leg is bleeding and the bone is broken.
- 4. Male Passenger. He holds his chest and he is breathing very hard. He is sweating a lot and he says, "My chest hurts. There is so much pain."
- 5. Female Passenger. She is unconscious. She has many broken bones.
- 6. Female Passenger. She is unconscious. Her skin is wet and pale. She is weak, she has a rapid pulse. No one sees any injuries.
- 7. Child Passenger. She has a big cut on her arm. There is a lot of blood.
- 8. Male Passenger. He is weak, confused, skin is cold and damp, in shock, rapid pulse.

Conversation Question

How can we help each passenger?

Accident! Giving First Aid***

- 1. Male Passenger. He has blood coming from his head. There is a lot of blood.
  - If possible, wash hands before beginning.
  - Find a big piece of clean cloth (a woman's slip, skirt, or head wrap).
  - Use the clean cloth to apply direct pressure on the cut.
  - If blood soaks the cloth, don't remove it—put more cloth and continue to apply pressure.
  - Apply pressure until the bleeding stops.
  - Wash hands after giving first aid.

- 2. Female Passenger. She can't breathe. She has peanuts in her hand. Something is stuck in her throat.
  - Bend her over at the waist.
  - Use the palm of your hand and hit the middle of her back 5 times.
  - If this doesn't work, stand behind her and put your arms around her waist.
  - Put your fist against her stomach and below the ribs.
  - Press into her stomach with a sudden strong upward push.
  - This forces the air from her lungs & opens her throat. Repeat several times.

- 3. Child Passenger. This child is screaming. Her leg is bleeding and you see the bone is broken.
  - Don't move the child.
  - Look for 2 splints (strong sticks, branches, or cardboard). Get a clean cloth.
  - Place the 2 splints (strong sticks, branches, or cardboard) on either side of the broken bone.
  - Tie the cloth around the splints so they keep the bone from moving.
  - Carry the child without moving the bone.

4. Male Passenger. He holds his chest and he is breathing very hard. He is sweating a lot and he says, “My chest hurts. There is so much pain.”
  - Help him move to a place where he can sit or lie down.
  - Make him as comfortable as possible.
  - If there is aspirin, give him ½ of a tablet.
  - This may be a heart attack. Get medical help fast.

5. Female Passenger. She is unconscious. She has many broken bones.
  - Get three or four people to help.
  - Look for a stretcher or make a stretcher from branches and cloth.
  - Put 3-4 people along side of the woman
  - At the same time, lift the woman without bending her anywhere.
  - One person puts the stretcher under the woman
  - People carefully put the woman onto the stretcher.
  - People must be careful not to bend the head or neck.
  - Get medical help fast.

6. Female Passenger. She is unconscious. Her skin is wet and pale. She is weak, she has a rapid pulse.
  - Lay her with her head lower than her feet and loosen her clothing.
  - Get medical help fast. Cover her if she is cold.

7. Child Passenger. She has a big cut on her arm. There is a lot of blood.
  - Follow the same procedure as for Man #1.
  - Put the arm above the heart to help slow bleeding.

8. Male Passenger. He is in shock. He is weak, confused, skin is cold and damp, he has a rapid pulse.
  - Open his belt and any other tight clothing.
  - Let him lie down and put his feet higher than his head—a little.
  - Cover him with a blanket, if possible.
  - If possible let him sip water or another drink—but not alcohol.
  - If he has pain, give him aspirin. Keep him calm, reassure him.
  - Get medical help quickly.

Witchcraft or Bad Luck?

A few years ago, there was a very successful football team. They won every game of the season. So, they were selected for the playoffs.

The day of the playoffs, the players were ready. The game ended after 90 minutes. They lost. The score was 0-5. The fans were furious.

Some people said the coach was responsible. They said, "He didn't pay the wizard. That's why we lost. If he had paid the wizard, we would have won this game."

Other people said the team was responsible. "They didn't practice enough. They were arrogant and they played poorly."

Behaving like an American: A Skit

- Narrator     John and Mark are friends. They are in a pub, talking and drinking beer.
- John             Do you know my friend Carl?
- Mark             Yes, I see you talking with Carl at school sometimes. Did he go to the United States a few years ago?
- John             No, he has never been to the U.S.A.
- Mark             Are you sure? He behaves like an American.
- John             Yes, he gives everyone the impression that he lived in the U.S. but he never went there. He talks like an American. He walks like an American and he dresses like an American. But he has never been to the U.S.A.
- Mark             Do you think it is good for him to behave like an American?
- John             I don't know. What do you think?
- Mark             I'm not sure. Are there reasons why he wants to behave like an American?
- John             I don't know. Why does he want to give up his African culture? That's my question. What's wrong with being African?
- Mark             I'm proud to be African. I know we are living at a time when it is easy to adopt different cultures but I don't think we should give up our culture.

Conversation Questions: Choose a Few To Talk About

Corruption & Bribery: A Skit

- Narrator This skit takes place at the national university. It is the end of the year and students are studying for the final exams. The professor is in his office. One student, Therese, is waiting to speak with him.
- Professor I am ready to speak with the next student. Please come in and close the door.
- Therese Yes, Professor. Thank you. I have a question about the information you gave us last week. I asked a question in class but you didn't answer it.
- Professor Yes, let me see. Your name is Therese. I remember. Your question was very good. You are an excellent student.
- Therese Yes, I study very hard. I want to graduate this year because it is very difficult for me and my family to pay the university fees.
- Professor Ah, yes. University fees are very expensive. I have five children and their school fees are also expensive. Then I have to pay for the school uniforms and the notebooks and pens. Are you married?
- Therese No, I'm not.
- Professor So you don't pay for children.
- Therese No, I am alone and my family is helping me so that is why I want to finish my studies very quickly. I want to do well on your exam so I can pass it.
- Professor Well, it is not only studying that can help you pass the exam. I have many expenses with my family and I am not sure I will have the time to read all the exams from this class. There are many students. Sometimes I fail students because I don't have time to read the exams. I have another job so if I don't have time to read the exams ... [Action: The Professor looks at Therese.]
- Therese Professor, I am not sure I understand what you are saying to me.
- Professor [The professor is silent.]
- Therese I am studying hard and I want to pass this class. I must pass the class. I hope you will read my exam.
- Professor Well, if I have time, I will read your exam. If I don't have time, you will fail. Do you understand me?
- Therese [Therese is silent.]
- Professor You can go now and think about our conversation. If you want to succeed on the exam, you must come back to see me before the exam begins. I think you know what to bring, don't you?

Therese [Action: Therese stands up and leaves the office in silence.]

Professor Next student, please come in.

Anne Good morning Professor. Thank you for letting me come to see you.

Professor Yes, come in and close the door. I am happy to see you. You look beautiful. Your mini-skirt is lovely. Very short, very nice. Sit down next to me so I can see you.

Anne [Action: Anne sits next to the Professor]

Professor Are you ready for our lesson today? [Professor looks at Anne seductively.]

Anne [Action: Anne turns her head away]. Professor, I want to pass my exam. I only want to pass. You will let me pass if we do this. Do you promise me?

Professor Of course. Now let me see what you have to show me today.

Narrator The Professor has sex with Anne in his office. When he is finished, he tells her to put on her clothes. He tells her she must return to his office one hour before the exam and he will give her the answers to the exam questions.

Conversation Questions: Choose a Few to Talk about

1. If Therese was your friend, what advice would you give her?
2. If Anne was your friend, what advice would you give her?
3. What do you think should happen to this professor?
4. Do you know about any other kind of corruption in schools or other places?
5. Do you know any stories about bribery? Share one of them.
6. What can be done to stop bribery?
7. Create a role play and present it to the Club Members.
8. What are the causes of corruption?
9. Why are some people corrupt?
10. What advice can we give to people who are asked to pay bribes?
11. What can universities and schools do to stop corruption?
12. Can we do anything about corruption as English Club Members? If yes, what? If no, why not?

American Tribalism? A Skit

- Narrator      Mark and John work at the Department of Health in Washington, DC. Mark is the Executive Surgeon General. John is the Assistant Surgeon General. They grew up in the same town and went to the same school and university. Mark's mother and John's mother are cousins. Now they work together. They are talking in Mark's office.
- Mark            I need a secretary. I am not sure if I can find someone.
- John            I know a young woman. She finished two years in the university and she is quite clever.
- Mark            Is she qualified? I need someone who can write letters very well, speak English and Spanish, and use the computer.
- John            Those are simple tasks. I am confident she can do the job for you.
- Mark            You also need a secretary, don't you?
- John            Yes, I do. I need a secretary to answer the phone, check my calendar, and assist the visitors who come to see me.
- Mark            I know a young woman. She finished secondary school. She can do this job for you.
- John            Great! Let's contact these women and ask them to come for interviews tomorrow.
- Mark            Wait a minute. We have to advertise the positions. If we hire these two young women and we don't advertise, someone will say this is nepotism.
- John            How is this nepotism? Are these young women in our family?
- [Action: John smiles at Mark. Mark smiles at John.]
- Narrator      Mark and John shake hands and promise to tell the women to come to the office the next morning. At the end of the day, Mark goes to his house and speaks to his cousin, Maria.
- Mark            Listen, Maria. I have a job for you. Tomorrow morning I want you to go to my office. I will introduce you to my cousin John. He needs a secretary. You can do this job very well. But you must be very careful and remember that your loyalty is to me, not him.
- Maria          Thank you very much Uncle. I will be careful and I will be loyal to you.

Narrator In the evening, John speaks to his wife, Rose.

John Today Mark asked me to find someone to be his secretary. Do you think your sister, Bernadette, can do this job?

Rose Yes, of course. She is a good secretary.

John Excellent. I want someone in Mark's office who can tell me what Mark is doing, keep an eye on him.

Rose Bernadette can do this. She is very discrete and very intelligent.

John O.K. But, no one must know that Bernadette is your sister. If they discover this, I will be accused of nepotism and get fired. So she must be very discrete.

Narrator The next morning Mark introduces Maria to John. John introduces Bernadette to Mark. Both men agree to hire the women after they post a job advertisement in the local newspaper.

Conversation Activities: Choose a Few to Do

1. John and Mark work in the U.S.A. Could a similar conversation happen in this country? Explain.
2. Nepotism is the action of giving jobs to family and friends and this is usually done by powerful people. Are nepotism and tribalism similar? How? How are they different?
3. What are the advantages of nepotism? What are the disadvantages of nepotism?
4. If our family or friends are qualified, should we hire them? Explain.
5. Create a role play about a job opening that does not have nepotism.

American Tribalism or American Politics?

- Narrator It is November 1, 2011, one week before Election Day. President Obama is running for a second term. Thomas and Theresa live in Chicago, Illinois and they are talking about who they will vote for on Election Day.
- Theresa Of course I can. I am going to vote for President Obama again.
- Thomas Why? What has he done to help us? He has not done anything he promised in 2008.
- Theresa How could he? No one wanted to help him. He was fighting an uphill battle.
- Thomas What do you mean? We know there is a lot of prejudice against him but he still didn't give us what he promised.
- Theresa So, you agree with me. How could he do anything when so many people blocked him? Obama is like a cousin. He worked in Chicago for a long time, like us. He is African-American, like us. We have to stand by him. I won't let him down. He has my vote.
- Thomas Are you saying you will vote for him just because he's African-American?
- Theresa Well, you can say that if you want to. Or you can say that I'm voting for him again because he calls Chicago his home—just like we do. So he's our neighbor. He's had a hard time in his first term and this is not because of what he did. He needs more time. He needs a second chance. Yes, he's African-American and I am proud of him but I am voting for him because he tried hard and I want to give him more time to see if he can keep the promises he made to us.
- Thomas I don't think we should vote for anyone just because we share the same ethnicity or we come from the same town or even the same neighborhood.
- Theresa I'm voting for Obama because he needs another chance to do what he promised. That's why I'm voting for him.

Conversation Activities: Choose a Few to Talk About

1. If Theresa and Thomas were your friends, what would you ask them about their voting decisions?
2. If you were Theresa or Thomas, would you vote for President Obama? Explain.
3. If a leader does not keep a promise, should this person be re-elected? Explain.
4. Imagine Theresa and Thomas are waiting in line to vote on Election Day. Role play their conversation.
5. Make a list of criteria that voters should use when they are trying to decide who to vote for. For example, is it important to vote for someone because they come from the same town? Is it important to vote for someone because they are from the same ethnic group?

American Politics or Ignorance?

- Narrator: It is November 1, 2011. President Obama is running for a second term as President. John and Mary are friends. They live in a small town in Pennsylvania. They are talking about who they will vote for on Election Day.
- Mary Are you ready for Election Day?
- John Yes. What about you?
- Mary I don't know. I'm not happy with either candidate.
- John Why not? President Obama has done a good job. Look at our new health care system. If it wasn't for President Obama's health care, I might be dead right now.
- Mary You are exaggerating. You have a good job with union benefits. You don't need to worry about health care.
- John What do you know about my job in the factory? You are a bank manager. You have excellent benefits. President Obama has my vote. Besides, I don't like the way some people talk about him. They don't like him because his father was from Kenya. What's the problem with Kenya?
- Mary Well, you know. Some people just think that is strange.
- John [Action: John looks at Mary with anger in his eyes.] How can you say that? Aren't you ashamed to say that? You are very ignorant to me—and you are prejudiced.
- Mary How do you know what prejudice is? You are as white as I am.
- John Just because I am a white and I work in a factory, doesn't mean I can't see prejudice. I'm voting for President Obama again. There is no question in my mind.
- Mary Well, I'm still not sure. I don't think he represents my interests.
- John Really? What you mean is this. Because he isn't white, rich, and from Pennsylvania you will not vote for him. You mean because health care isn't important to you, you won't vote for him, even if it is important for someone like me, someone who isn't rich like you.
- Mary [Silence]
- John Aha! So now I see you are beginning to think. Good!

Mary

Maybe you are correct. Maybe I need to think carefully about this election. I need to think about who is the best person for the job. I should not vote for the person who looks like me. I need to think about who will do what is best for me, who will help me. Maybe you're right—maybe I should vote for Obama and not a man who talks like me or looks like me.

Conversation Activities: Choose a Few to Talk About

1. If John and Mary were your friends, what would you ask them about their voting decisions?
2. If you were Mary or John, would you vote for President Obama? Explain.
3. If a leader keeps a promise, should this person be re-elected? Explain.
4. Imagine Mary and John are waiting in line to vote on Election Day. Role play their conversation.
5. Role play a situation from your neighborhood about an election decision two friends might make.

Quotations about Leadership

What's a Quote? It is the exact words spoken or written by someone. Sometimes the person is famous and sometimes not. When we don't know who said the quote, we say the speaker is "anonymous." We can also use the word "Quotations." Usually quotations/quotes have: a special meaning; a special message, and/or a hidden meaning or message.

Quotes about Leadership

1. Every accomplishment begins with the decision to try. Gail Devers
2. Knowledge is power. Francis Bacon
3. Leaders are those who empower others. Bill Gates
4. Many hands make the load lighter. Haitian proverb
5. For every minute spent in organizing, an hour is earned. Benjamin Franklin
6. An idea is worthless unless you use it. Unknown
7. True genius resides in the capacity for evaluation of uncertain, hazardous, and conflicting information. Winston Churchill

After you read the quotes, choose a few questions to talk about:

1. Are there any quotes you like?
2. Which quote do you agree with?
3. Are there any quotes you dislike?
4. Which quote do you disagree with?

Nelson Mandela & Freedom: A Skit

N = Narrator      M = Mandela      F#1 = Friend #1      F#2 = Friend #2      F#3 = Friend #3

Narrator      In this story Mandela* is 22 years old. He is a student at the University of Fort Hare in 1940. Mandela and his friends are talking about a problem.

M      Right now we are represented by students who do not live here. This is not right. We must represent ourselves.

F#1      I agree.

F#2      I disagree.

F#3      I'm not sure.

F#1      Let's take a vote. First, let me call our friends and tell them to vote with us.

M      No, that's not the way to do this. We need a consensus.

F#1      Why? Majority rules. Isn't this what they do in Britain?

M      Are we British? Do we want to continue doing what is not just? Look at our fathers. When they needed to make a decision they made it together as one people.

F#2      That's the old tribal way.

M      Yes, and it worked very well. We are not here to crush a minority—anyone who doesn't agree with us. Let us hear from everyone first.

F#1      That will take too long. We need to act now.

F#2      What are you afraid of if we listen to Mandela? We can take time. We can talk about this. Let's try to reach a consensus.

M      Let's listen to everyone first. Then we will sum up the different ideas. Maybe we can form a consensus among the diverse opinions. It will not be good if we force a decision on people who disagree with us.

F#3      Well, what will we do if we don't agree?

M      We will hold another meeting in a few days. We will give everyone more time to think. It is important to listen to each other first.

N      At the end of the meeting, everyone agrees to continue talking before they make a decision. Mandela says that great leaders keep their people united ... all remain loyal to him, not because they always agree with him, but because great leaders listen and respect all different opinions

Conversation Questions: Choose a Few to Talk About

1. Which person in this skit was the most important for you? Why?
2. If you were one of Mandela's friends would you want to vote or look for consensus? Explain.

An Interview with Nelson Mandela

- I Welcome to our broadcast, President Mandela*. We are happy you are here today.
- M Thank you. I am very happy to be here too.
- I Let me begin by congratulating you on the Nobel Peace Prize. You shared this prize with President de Klerk, the White President of South Africa in 1993.
- M Yes, he freed me from prison after 27 years.
- I Why did two people get this prize?
- M We received this prize because we worked together for a peaceful end to apartheid.
- I You became President in 1994. Now, it is 1998. What will you do at the end of your term in 1999? Will you run for a second term?
- M No, I will retire in 1999.
- I This is unusual. Many African Presidents run for two terms and some Presidents change the Constitution so they can stay for many years.
- M A one-term limit is enough for me. I think two terms is enough for all Presidents.
- I What is your biggest problem as President?
- M Racial violence is a big problem. We have the Truth and Reconciliation Commission. The goal is to heal the wounds from apartheid—for White South Africans, Black South Africans, Indian South Africans, Coloured South Africans.
- I Some people say that South Africa is the Rainbow Nation.
- M Yes, this is correct. We want everyone in our nation.
- I How can this be possible after the violence against Black South Africans?
- M Courageous people do not fear forgiving, for the sake of peace.
- I So we are courageous when we forgive—even the people who hurt us?
- M Yes, we must forgive.
- I Was it easy for South Africans to forgive?
- M No, it wasn't. I worked hard to help everyone understand.
- I Tell us about the Rugby World Cup in 1995.
- M South Africa hosted this competition. I encouraged Black South Africans to support our team. They didn't want to support this team. It only had White South Africans. When our team won, I presented the trophy to our captain, an Afrikaner, a White South African. I wore a rugby shirt with his number on my back.

I Was this important?

M Yes, I accepted these White players. I respected them and honored them.

I So peace is important. What else is important?

M Good leaders are important. When I was young I watched the leaders in my tribe.

I But there is no democracy in our tribal customs.

M Yes, we have democracy—we believe that everyone can speak. Everyone is heard. A decision is made together, by consensus, by agreement. I believe in inclusion, accountability and freedom of speech. These are fundamental for a democracy.

I Are there other ideas from African culture that you agree with?

M Yes, let me tell you a story. One day, I was visiting a tribal leader, a queen in one of the tribal lands. She spoke Xhosa—the language of my people.

I You have a tribal leader who is a woman, a queen?

M Yes. When she spoke to me in Xhosa, I wasn't able to answer her. I forgot my language. I studied English, spoke English and forgot the language of my family.

I What did she say to you?

M She said, "How can you be a leader if you can't speak to your people?" I was surprised. I started thinking and I realized I must continue to speak the language of my people.

I For people who are not in South Africa, they are curious about your name, Madiba.

M This is my clan name, my tribal name. I am a member of the royal Thembu family. To show me respect, people use this name for me.

I Let me ask you about Ubuntu. We hear people talking about this.

M Yes, this word is in our language. It means that we belong to each other. People say, "I am because you are." We are united because we are humans. My name, Ubuntu, our African cultures and languages—they are all important. We must not forget about them.

I Madiba, President Mandela, we thank you very much for joining us today.

M It was my pleasure.

Truth & Reconciliation: Awarding Amnesty

When Nelson Mandela was president, national reconciliation was his most important responsibility. He created the Truth and Reconciliation Commission (TRC). The TRC investigated crimes committed during apartheid by the South African Government and the African National Congress (ANC), the freedom fighters. TRC gave amnesty to people who committed crimes and agreed to give testimony.

Imagine you are members of this Commission. You must decide who will receive amnesty. There are 10 perpetrators of crimes. You can only give amnesty to 5 perpetrators. Your committee must agree on the same 5 people—unanimously. African National Congress (ANC) members fought against apartheid. South African Police (SAP) supported apartheid. Here are the perpetrators. Here is the information about the 10 perpetrators. Choose 5.

- Peter, 35 years old. Black South African, member of the ANC. He tortured Black SAP informants.
- Eugene, 50 years old. White SAP, colonel. He was responsible for the torture of hundreds of ANC members. He organized Black SAP soldiers to capture, torture and kill ANC members. He organized bombings of important ANC places.
- Wilson, 39 years old. Black South African, ANC member. He sabotaged railways, bombed public buildings, killed many SAP.
- Johann, 47 years old. White South African, SAP commander. He ordered the capture and killing of thousands of ANC members. He followed orders from the white South African Government.
- Brian, 45 years old. Black South African, SAP policeman. He was paid by the white South African Government to torture and kill 12 ANC members.
- Roger, 45 years old. White South African, SAP expert in bomb making. He made bombs that killed 2 white ANC women.
- Paramount Chief, 66 years old. Black South African, he supported the SAP. He survived an ANC assassination attempt. He encouraged the torture of ANC perpetrators.
- Donald, 55 years old. White South African, SAP Lieutenant. He commanded an attack on ANC demonstrators—with machetes and rocks—who wanted to kill Whites. 20 died in this SAP attack.
- Jeremy, 34 years old. Black South African, ANC militant. He fire bombed and killed 10 SAP officers.
- Frene, 40 years old. Indian South African, she was an ANC activist. She provided underground escape routes for ANC leaders. She spoke out internationally against apartheid.

Conversation Questions: Choose a Few to Talk About

1. Was it easy or difficult to award amnesty to only 5 of these people? What made it easy—or difficult?
2. What was the biggest concern when making these decisions?
3. Were the group members easy to persuade?
4. Was there a leader in this decision making process? Say more about how the group made decisions.
5. Do we need a Truth and Reconciliation Commission in our country? Explain

Useful Vocabulary and Expressions

Truth	A fact, not imagination
True	Accurate, exact
Lie	Not a fact, not the truth
To lie about [something] To tell a lie	To say something that is not true
Reconciliation	Bringing two different ideas together; reunion
Reconcile	To put two different ideas [or people] together [as friends]
Perpetrator	Someone who commits a crime
Amnesty	An official pardon for someone who has done something wrong, bad, unjust
To award amnesty to [someone]	To give [someone] amnesty
Unanimous	Opinion, vote, decision accepted by everyone

Speak Freely—Protect the Environment!

A Skit about Wangari Maathai***

Narrator: Wangari Maathai* was a Kenyan activist for the environment and politics. She was a peace-maker. After high school she went to an American university and then returned to Kenya. In her town she saw many trees were destroyed. In 1977 she started the Green Belt Movement. Wangari Maathai taught Kenyan women to plant trees. These trees restored the environment and gave women firewood. Maathai saw more problems in Kenya. Politicians gave land to international businesses. When they gave the land, the environment was destroyed.

This skit begins in 1989. We are in Nairobi. There is a big, beautiful public park. The park is called Uhuru Park. The Kenyan government wants to give park land to some businesses. The Kenyan people like this park. Wangari knows that the businesses will destroy the park. They will build a skyscraper. This will harm the environment for the people in Nairobi.

Wangari meets with her friends. They discuss the situation.

Wangari: Come, my friends. Let's go to Uhuru Park and stop the government from constructing the skyscraper.

Friend #1: I want to go but I am afraid. The police will attack us.

Wangari: Why do you think the police will attack us?

Friend #1: Because the government is very powerful.

Wangari: Yes, you are right. But if we do not take action the government will destroy our public park. We are citizens. We must stand up for what is right. We must stand up for what we believe.

Friend #2: I am afraid. Maybe the police will arrest me.

Wangari: Don't be afraid. Fear does not give us security.

Friend #3: I don't understand. Why do you want to stop the government?

Wangari: If we do not stop the government now then when the government has all the public land, it will take my land and your land.

Friend #4: The police can arrest my children and my husband. Maybe they will also go to prison because of me.

Wangari: We must speak out and stand up while we have time. If we don't, our children will not have a park. The government will destroy it.

Friend #5      Wangari, listen to me. The government is responsible for this decision. We are not responsible for this decision.

Wangari:      Yes, the government is responsible. But we are responsible too. We are citizens and we must do something about this situation.

Friend #6:     My husband says you are crazy. I should not be with you. I don't think I will go.

Wangari:      Why am I crazy? Because I stand up for what I believe? We must stand up.

Friend #7:     You are right Wangari. I know you are right. We can write letters to the government.

Wangari:      I wrote letters, many letters. This government always responds to something that is loud and public. We must make a public protest.

Friend #8:     Look into our eyes. We want to go but we are afraid.

Wangari:      Yes, I am afraid too. We will go together. When we are together we are strong.

All Friends    We will go to Uhuru Park. We will stand together, Wangari. You are right. When we stand together we are strong.

Conversation Activity

Imagine that you are one of Wangari's friends. You must decide if you will go to the protest in the park. If you are in a small group, you must agree unanimously. You have 20 minutes to decide.

Conversation Questions

1. What problems about freedom of speech and environmental protection does this skit present to us?
2. What problems do we have in our community that are similar to those for Wangari and her friends?

Useful Vocabulary and Expressions

Skyscraper	Very tall building—in this skit it is 60 levels/floors
Activist	A person who takes action to solve a problem
Afraid, to be afraid of	Fearful, to be fearful of = Scared, to be scared of
To harm	To damage
To destroy	To damage completely
To restore	To make better
To protest against [the decision] To stand up for [something]	To support [something]
The Green Belt Movement	A “grassroots” organization to support community development and protect and conserve the environment by planting trees.
Grassroots organization	A group of volunteers in a community who work to solve a problem
Nobel Peace Prize	The most prestigious prize in the world. It is usually given each year to a person—or group of people—who, in the year before, worked for peace. The prize winner is selected by 5 judges from Norway.

An Interview with Wangari Maathai

- I Welcome to our broadcast, Dr. Wangari*. We are happy you are here today.
- W Thank you. I am very happy to be here too.
- I Let me begin by congratulating you on your Nobel Peace Prize. You are the first African woman to win this prize. And you are from Kenya. We are very honored that you are a citizen of Kenya.
- W Yes, I am grateful to the Nobel Peace Prize Committee. I was not expecting this award.
- I As an African woman, I am sure you experienced gender discrimination. Can you tell us about one experience?
- W You know I have many experiences. Your radio station reported what President Arap Moi said about me. Do you remember?
- I Yes, he said that proper women—in the African tradition—should respect men and be quiet.
- W He also called me a crazy woman and ignorant. These are very good examples of gender discrimination. Why must women be silent? Are we crazy when we speak the truth?
- I Let me change the subject. Your family decided to send you to school. Wasn't it unusual for a Kikuyu family to send their daughter to school?
- W Kikuyu families send their daughters to school. Families in most African countries send their daughters to school. My family came from a simple village. I will always be grateful to my family for the sacrifice they made to send me to school.
- I A few years ago you joined 52 mothers in a Nairobi church. They were protesting against the government to release their sons. Their sons were in prison. Why did you join them?
- W They went on a hunger strike to protest their sons' imprisonment. I wanted to support them.
- I You were arrested, beaten by the police and hospitalized with injuries. Weren't you afraid?
- W The mothers were brave and courageous. They didn't have their sons. I am a mother, too. It was important to be with them. In the end, the government released all the prisoners.
- I You are a highly educated woman. You have a doctorate. But you plant trees—with your hands? Isn't this bizarre?
- W No, it is not strange. The rural women accept and appreciate that I work with them. They know I work to improve their lives and the environment. Education should not take people away from land. Education should give people respect for the land. Besides, you don't need a diploma to plant a tree.

- I Yes, you are right. You are a Nobel Peace Prize winner and a member of the Kenyan Parliament. You are a mother and an activist. You are an environmentalist and an advocate for democracy. We thank you for participating in our interview today.

Save the Wildlife! A National Meeting Role Play

GROUP ROLES

- 1. 2 Representatives of the National Tourist Agency (4 votes total). You want more tourists. One hotel is constructed; you will build another soon.
- 2. 5 Village Representatives near the park (2 votes per representative—10 votes total) Hotel worker, park guide, taxi man who drives the Land Rover, 1 village woman makes handicrafts and 1 collects and sells firewood.
- 3. 2 Logging Company Representatives (4 votes total). You sell trees from the park to international companies. Wildlife interferes with this work.
- 4. 2 Representatives from the International Beauty Industry (4 votes total) Many people buy your products. You use powdered ivory and other ingredients from wildlife. You export your products to countries in Asia and Africa.
- 5. Ambassador and Assistant from neighboring country (2 votes total) In public you say poaching must stop. In secret you encourage poaching because you need money for weapons. You want to invade this country.
- 6. 2 National Military Generals (2 votes total) You worry because the game park is on the border and poachers cross it. They kill the wildlife, rape village women, and steal. Some poachers use machine guns.
- 7. 3 Representatives from “Save our Wildlife” (6 votes total) You want to stop the slaughter of wildlife. Before wildlife was plentiful. Now only a few animals remain. Elephants, giraffe, lions, and other animals are intelligent and have emotions. Mother elephants (cows) and their babies cry when separated. Father elephants (bulls) protect their families. The animals are killed cruelly. Beauty products are expensive and ineffective. You propose a solution. Here are your proposals—or you can make different ones. You will only have time to offer 2 proposals:
  - Stop all killing of wildlife.
  - Impose a 1-year ban on killing.
  - Park rangers can kill the old animals and sell the carcasses.
- 8. The National Chairperson is the Club Leader (3 votes total)

Coalition	An alliance of people who agree to support the same idea

Save the Wildlife! Debating the Solution

Facts about Game Parks and Wildlife

- Hotels at game parks are owned by international companies.
- Hotels at game parks discourage villagers from selling handicrafts at the hotel.
- Hotel employees must live in hotel housing—no families allowed.
- Logging companies cut down trees in the park and sell the wood to international companies.
- Villagers go into the forests for firewood to sell and use for cooking.
- In one African country, poachers who slaughter wildlife and smuggle tusks and rhino horns from game parks go to prison for 40 years. Later, their sentences are reduced from 40 to 13 years.
- One international NGO supports an environmental education program in 21 schools (with 1400 children) near a game park. The program teaches children about the black rhino, wildlife conservation and community benefits if the black rhino is not killed. International donors pay $60,000 a year.
- Some game parks keep wildlife population statistics confidential to protect against poaching.
- To reduce poaching, one international wildlife organization offers jobs to poachers—they become wildlife guards.

- National Park Ranger

Role Play #4 (2 volunteers)

- Radio Station Interviewer
- National Soldier

Role Play #5 (7 volunteers)

- Radio Station Interviewer
- Family living near park (Mother, Father, Son #1, Son #2, Daughter #1, Daughter #2)

Role Play #1

Radio Station Interviewer—wants to understand the experience of one family who visited the national park.

Family from Europe—finished visiting the national park. They wanted to see elephants and gorillas. They climbed for 3 hours and saw 1 gorilla. They drove for 4 hours and saw one rhinoceros, 10 antelope, and 20 zebras. They didn't see any elephants.

Mother—is disappointed because she told her children they would see a lot of animals.

Father—is angry because he paid $50,000 for this vacation for his family.

Son—is sad because he thinks someone killed all the animals.

Daughter—is happy because she saw a few animals.

[At the end of the role play, the Club Leader can ask, Should our country promote tourism in our parks? Explain]

Role Play #2

Radio Station Interviewer—wants to understand why poachers hunt for endangered animals—especially gorillas. He knows that smugglers sell gorilla carcasses for $25,000 to international beauty companies that make beauty creams for women and sexual potency products for men. He knows these creams and potency products do not work.

Poacher—kills gorillas because he can sell each dead gorilla for $1,000 to smugglers.

[At the end of the role play, Club Leader can ask, How can we stop poaching in our parks?]

Role Play #3

Radio Station Interviewer—wants to understand why the National Park Ranger likes his job. The job is dangerous because the poachers already killed 2 park rangers. There is also danger from soldiers who cross the border from the neighboring country.

National Park Ranger—loves his job because he thinks wild animals are very, very interesting. He likes to observe them, study them. He loves to teach people who live near the park about the animals. He enjoys speaking with the children and showing them what wild animals do.

[At the end of the role play, Club Leader can ask, How can villagers protect park rangers?]

Role Play #4

Radio Station Interviewer—wants to understand why the soldiers must patrol the National Park. There is an international agreement signed by all the countries in Africa that prohibits one country from interfering with another country.

Soldier—wants to attack the neighboring country because they violated the international agreement. Every day he finds evidence that smugglers are protected by the neighboring soldiers. Also, one of his friends, an important colonel in the military was assassinated by the neighboring soldiers and he wants revenge.

[At the end of the role play, Club Leader can ask, Why should national parks be protected from war and conflict?]

Role Play # 5

Radio Station Interviewer—wants to understand the opinion of the people who live near the park. He wants to know if they support saving the wildlife or not.

Family near the Park—have this land from their ancestors. They have lived and worked in this region for hundreds of years.

Mother—does not support the protection of wildlife. She can't go into the park for firewood. She is afraid of the poachers, the smugglers, soldiers, and the park rangers. She is afraid the soldiers from the neighboring country will kidnap her son and take her son to be a child soldier.

Father—wants to save the wildlife because he works in the hotel near the park. He gets very good tips from the tourists.

Son #1—wants to save the wildlife because he drives the land rover for tourists to visit the park.

Son #2—helps the poacher find the wildlife in secret and he helps slaughter them. His family thinks he is a park ranger.

Daughter #1—wants to save the wildlife because she works in a bar near the park and she serves the poachers, smugglers, soldiers and park rangers when they are thirsty. She makes excellent tips.

Daughter #2—helps her mother cook, collect firewood and clean the house.

[At the end of the role play, Club Leader can ask, Why is wildlife important for our country's future?]

Stop the Health Crisis! A National Meeting Role Play

Background Information:

Our government has a national health crisis. We have $2,000,000 (million) to help the sick. We have 6 government departments who can help. Each department wants money. If the department gets a lot of money they will get more support in the future.

Club Members volunteer for each department (maximum 5 Members in each department).

DEPARTMENTS (GROUP ROLES)

- 1. Medical Department gives medicines, doctors, nurses, psychological counselors, emergency hospital tents, medical supplies, thermometers, personal protective gear.
- 2. Public Health Department gives sprays to kill mosquitoes, chlorine, clean water, public toilets. The department gives information to the public to stop contamination.
- 3. Department of Housing has tents, sheets, blankets for people who live outside their own homes to prevent contamination.
- 4. National Food Department distributes rice and flour, clean water for cooking, simple barbecues with firewood.
- 5. National Military keeps the area safe, protects people from thieves and smugglers who want to steal medicines and sell them on the black market. The military patrols the airport to be sure planes land safely and there is enough petrol for emergency vehicles.
- 6. Emergency Relief Department prepares a radio broadcast for the international community. They ask for money, equipment, medical supplies, and healthcare workers to help with the crisis. This broadcast must be exactly 2 minutes long and include as much information as possible. The goal is to get as many international donations as possible.

Questions for Each Department to Answer

1. How will you help stop the health crisis?
2. How much money from $2,000,000 do you want?
3. What will you do with this money?

Each Department prepares a 5 minute presentation and answers these questions.

The Emergency Relief Department listens to each department proposal. At the end of all the presentations the Emergency Relief Department decides how much money to give each department. The Emergency Relief Department presents a 2-minute broadcast to appeal for aid from the international community.

Help the Refugees! An Interview with a Psychologist

RI = Radio Interviewer      P = Psychologist

RI      Welcome to our broadcast, Madam*. We are happy you are here today.

P      Thank you. I am happy to be here too.

RI      Let me begin with a question about your background. What is your education and what experiences do you have?

P      I was trained at the University of Cape Town in South Africa and I have a doctoral degree in psychology. I also studied at the University of Cambridge in Britain and I have a degree in medicine with a specialty in psychiatry.

RI      Wow! That's a lot of education. Wasn't it hard for you—a woman—to graduate and receive these diplomas?

P      No, women are good students. We don't just cook and make babies, you know.

RI      Yes, of course. My apologies for being sexist. So, as you know we have a lot of refugees in our country and there is a lot of discussion about how to help them.

P      Yes, worldwide, 1 in every 100 people is a refugee.** Some flee from persecution and others from violence or war. In our country we have refugees who flee from war in our neighboring countries.

RI      Many of my fellow citizens are critical of the refugees. They say they are all thieves and beggars. Is this true?

- P Let's think about this. We know that refugees suffer from trauma.
- RI What is trauma?
- P Trauma happens when you see something violent or when you are extremely afraid for your life. For example, this can happen when children see their fathers killed or mothers raped or when parents see their children killed. They will all experience trauma.
- RI Can we see the trauma?
- P No, we can't see trauma. We can see a broken bone or other injuries to our bodies but we can't see trauma. But there are signs. In children, they may be very unhappy or they don't want to play. Maybe they don't want to talk. Maybe they cry a lot. Maybe they have fights in school all the time.
- RI Well, some children do this all the time. They just need good discipline.
- P No, if we know children have experienced violence, we must think about trauma.
- RI Is this only a problem for children? What about adults?
- P Adults have trauma from violence too. There is also trauma when there is violence in the family—not just from war. For example, a husband beats his wife, or is angry at her all the time. The wife and children will have trauma.
- RI Well, this is just our culture. A husband can beat his wife if she doesn't do what he tells her to do.
- P This is not in our tradition. There is no tradition that tells men to beat—anyone.
- RI This is interesting. I wish I had time to ask you questions but now we need to open our mike and take calls from our listeners.

The Price of Marriage: Excessive or Fair? Finish the Story

Antoinette had a boyfriend named Michael. They loved each other very much. Three months ago, they decided to marry.

Antoinette introduced Michael to her parents. Her parents were very happy to meet Michael.

They said, "Michael, we are happy that you want to marry our daughter. We can see that you are a serious man and we know our daughter will be happy as your wife. Next week we will tell you what you need to give us for her daughter."

Antoinette's parents were very happy because Michael was a businessman. "We can ask him to give us many things," they said to each other. "Let's tell him to give us $25,000 and a motorbike."

When they told Michael what they wanted, Michael said, "This is very expensive. I don't know if this is possible. I am not a rich man." Michael was very sad and disappointed.

When Michael told Antoinette what her parents wanted, they talked all night long.

Useful Vocabulary and Expressions

Cocktail party	Americans have cocktail parties when they want to socialize and entertain. Sometimes they celebrate a success. Business people have cocktail parties to meet other people. Because these parties usually have lots of guests, people stand up, walk around, and talk to each other. Sometimes snacks—called hors d'oeuvres—are served. At these parties Americans drink cocktails, holding these drinks in their hands.
Cocktail	These are drinks with alcohol or without alcohol. Beer and wine are popular and also drinks with whiskey, gin, bourbon, and other liquors are popular.
Hangover	The morning after the cocktail party, if people drink too much alcohol, they may have a very, very bad headache. This kind of headache—from drinking too much alcohol—is called a hangover.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

I am grateful to Bryce Smedley whose hard-work, dedication, grant-writing skills, and insights into the needs of English language learners inspired this project. I am grateful to all those who offered ideas for discussion topics. In particular I wish to thank The Congo-American Language Institute, Teacher Corps including Bakadi Bualema Fidele, Frederick Lamanne Mulindua Bulambo, Ghislain Ntudikila Batantu, Kasongo Kabangu Jean, Kimbuta Mvuama Patrick, Mandiangu Mbala Christian, Mbela Bazika Herson, Mwanze Matumo Samson, Nibaraka Shabuta Osee, Odia Kabamba Cecile, Phaka Phanzu Agnes, Safari Bazirake Paulin, Takiko Tayo Dieudonnete, Tulandamoko Isaya Jeancy, Willy-Boss Bakandi Loyaya, and Vela Bikuma Etienne. I am also grateful to Sekombi Katondolo for his ideas and Joseph Kaleba Walingene for his editing suggestions. I am indebted to Kathryn Scruggs and Patricia Lowther for their support, encouragement, careful edits, and thoughtful feedback. I thank Helen Churko, Kate Shackford, Ellen Masi—the U.S. Embassy, Kinshasa, Public Affairs Officer—and Maria Snarski—Regional English Language Officer.

I give special thanks to Richard Beadon for his unwavering support, particularly throughout my travels, and technical assistance, and Katherine Arnoldi for her illustrations and design ideas. I acknowledge the unique, immeasurable insights I have received from Charles, Joe, and Matthew Malu.

Finally, I give credit to all those individuals whose English Club Activity suggestions generate fun, creative, lively discussions—and I take full credit for mistakes, errors, and activities that are “less-engaging.”
